When you get a ticket...

Even a “minor ticket” can cost you significantly when translated to insurance premiums, court fees and time away from work. Just thinking about being pulled over can be stressful. The anxiety of not knowing what to do or who to talk to may exact a heavy price.

Maybe you feel the ticket was undeserved or that you just weren't given a chance to explain. Rather than carry the burden alone, we encourage you to seek legal counsel. At Powers Law Firm PA, we provide an experienced, resourceful and professional legal defense. We do our homework, reviewing relevant background materials, such as previous citations, accidents and DMV histories.

We encourage you, before making ANY decisions, to call for a free consultation. We offer affordable fees, guarantee our rates and put them in writing for you. Call us. We are here to help!

Did you know...

A research study conducted by the CBA/26th Judicial Partnership Project analyzed the public's participation in the 26th Judicial District. In part, it was determined: having an attorney has a substantial impact on the outcome of cases. In traffic cases, the presence of an attorney was the most significant influence on the outcome. The study also brought to light another rather shocking statistic: many defendants do not understand how the court system works or what happened to them in court.

It's getting complicated!

The legal process can be confusing. Insurance "points" are somewhat different from DMV or motor vehicle points.

A simple traffic ticket can be very complex, depending upon a series of competing factors.

We want to respond to your individual and personal needs. Please call now! The consultation is FREE!
